The several hundred others have no longer any use for over-taxed dinner palis. The cause of the shut down is a reduction of $4.50 in the price of cotton ties and hoop iron, compled with the refusal of the Trustees of the city's beit railroad to insure free transportation of steel billets over the line. As the plant paid $430,000 into the city last year, its suspension is likely to be felt very foreibly. Charge this up to the John McKinley Silver Law and the Bill Sherman Tariff!
